

MY SWEET ALOY

Words and Music by BERTIE AIKEN-GREEN

Published by
MRS. DAVID GREEN
44 Proctor Boulevard
HAMILTON, ONT.

MY SWEET ALOY

Words & Music by BERTIE AIKIN - GREEN

1. 2.

Slower

There's a lit - tle girl way down in old Ja - mai - ca, Where the Let me tell you just how much my heart is break - ing, If I i - vy is so green. With a bunch of yel - low curls which seem to can, well, I can try. Soon I make my res - ig - na - tion where I'm make her, so ser - ene She's just a dream, her heart's so work - ing Down to Ja - mai - ca I will fly, Oh! thats the light, and oh! so sim-ple, And oh! it of-ten seems to me, I can place, you know the rea-son, For my heart is beat-ing fast My A hear her sweet voice sing-ing in the dis-tance And what joy, it brings to me.

loy is just a lit-tle bit of heav-en I've found the girl for me, O yes.

Chorus

Slow with expression

Sweet A - loy my heart is break-ing, Just to see you as of yore, And to lis-ten to your sweet voice, yes I'm long-ing, Sweet A - loy my sweet A - loy. My loy. My

1. 2.

After last verse only sweet A - loy she is a queen, she's just a dream, she's just a dream.

65, 268